NATIONAL REPUBLICAN. WASHINGTON, D. C., APRIL 1, 1881.

MELANCHOLY. BY SUB ROSA MURRAY.

He always were a look of gloom; He spake in solemn tone; He seemed to wait a day of doom; He ever walked alone.

With spirit crushed he went his way; His mind could know no ease; His darkness knew no clearing ray-His pants bagged at the knees! APRIL.

She who from April dates her years Diamonds should wear, lest bitter tears For vain repentance flow; this stone Emblem of innocence is known.

IMPORTANT HINTS. BY TOM BRENNAN.

It is unhealthy to wear your boots in steps. Always take a boot in each hand when going up-stairs. This plan gives you two shots at the cat after stepping on her. Never say anything sacque as a souvenir of your idiocy. Always remember your wedding-day and try to mark the occasion by some little act showing that you remember it. Coming home half full will often pensive manner.
